Speyer. Where are historical aircraft parts still offered today? Many aircraft enthusiasts across Europe know the answer: The answer to this is quite simple, because at the 49th International Aircraft Parts Fair, you get everything a collector's heart desires. The event will be held in the immediate vicinity of Speyer Airport, in Hangar 10 of the Technik Museum Speyer, and will open its doors on Saturday, 15th April 2023, from 8 am to 5 pm. Tickets are available at the ticket office for 7 euros, children up to the age of 14 get free entry. Information about the 49th International Aircraft Parts Fair can be found through the organiser Thomas Jülch at thomas.juelch@juelch-gmbh.de on the mobile number 0176-19065993 as well as the Technik Museum Speyer website at www.technik-museum.de/flugzeugteile-boerse.

Numerous exhibitors from Germany and abroad will be presenting their rare aircraft parts on this day, which they will sell, exchange or simply talk about. Visitors will see instruments and propellers from the 1stWorld War, jet helmets from the seventies and much more. A large part of the fair will include parts for the so-called warbirds such as the Messerschmitt Me 109 and the Focke Wulf Fw 190. But there will also be books, drawings, photos, and historical clothing on offer.

About the Technik Museen Sinsheim Speyer – from Deep Sea into Space

Supported by the non-profit club Auto + Technik Museum e. V. and based on the motto “for fans from fans”, the Technik Museen Sinsheim Speyer have about 3,500 members worldwide. The financing is exclusively based on admission fees, donations as well as membership fees of club members. All surpluses are used for the museum’s maintenance and expansion.

On an area of more than 200,000 sqm, the Technik Museen Sinsheim Speyer present more than 6,000 exhibits from all fields of technological history in a worldwide unique variety. The exhibits range from submarines to vintage cars, from the Concorde to the Space Shuttle BURAN. Besides the permanent exhibition and the changing special exhibitions, there are numerous vehicle and club meetings as well as events. Open 365 days a year, the museums attract over one million visitors a year. Our two IMAX large-format cinemas are a true highlight. While the IMAX 3D cinema in Sinsheim – “the cinema with the highest resolution in the world” – shows exclusive documentations and the latest Hollywood blockbusters, films are projected onto a giant dome in the IMAX DOME cinema in Speyer.
